

Experience Report: Cover Sheet

Global Exchange & PROMOS Program

The experience report has to be submitted by participants of the Global Exchange or PROMOS scholarship program of the University of Siegen. It serves to document and evaluate the stay abroad. If students agree with the publication of the report, the document is uploaded on the website of the Department of International Student Affairs to be used by future participants as a source of information to prepare their stay abroad. Please check our Experience Report Guidelines for further information.
